Bankhouse Brewery

1360 Ballarat - Daylesford Rd, Dean
Phone: 0407 687 291
Open Sat & Sun
11.30 to 5pm
www.bankhousebrewery.com.au

Bankhouse is the smallest brewery in Australia! Based in a tiny 1880s weatherboard bank building in Dean, it produces just 44 litres of beer in any brew. Brewer Damien Norman reckons his micro-business is simply 'a hobby that got out of hand'. You'll find Bankhouse Brewery on the main road between Ballarat and Daylesford.

Wineries

Attwoods Winery

260 Green Gully Rd, Glenlyon
Phone: 0493 081 712
Wine tastings Fri to Mon
Lunch @ Bouchon (bookings essential)
www.attwoodswines.com.au

Attwoods' endeavour is to make highly memorable cool climate wines such as pinot noir and chardonnay. Their winery and cellar door is situated in Glenlyon, just 10 minutes by car from Daylesford. The cellar door incorporates a stunning dining room, a terraced deck, and an abundance of leafy gardens and outdoor seating areas overlooking the vines and kitchen garden. Attwoods is wheelchair accessible.

Captains Creek Organic Wines

120 Kangaroo Hills Rd, Blampied
Phone: (03) 5345 7408
Cellar door open Sat & Sun
Shared tasting plates available from 12pm to 4pm
www.captainscreek.com

Captains Creek rises on this property at the foot of the Kangaroo Hills in Blampied and meanders north past the original homestead of Captain Hepburn. Drop in and taste-test a fabulous selection of organic wines crafted by hand. The selection of wines available for tasting includes sparkling whites and reds, unoaked and oaked chardonnay, a delicate rose, and a characterful pinot noir.

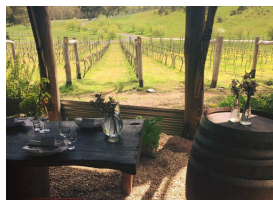

Eastern Peake Vineyard

67 Pickfords Rd, Coghills Creek
Cellar door open
Tuesday to Sat, 11am to 3pm
Bookings preferred
www.easternpeake.com.au

Eastern Peake is a leader in boutique wine production, and sells exclusively to restaurants and niche retailers nationally. At the vineyard's tasting room, you can experience exactly what makes this label so special. Eastern Peake is positioned at 430 metres above sea level, which is relatively high for an Australian vineyard. The cool climate is ideal for producing high quality pinot noir and chardonnay.

Wineries

Guilford Wines

6720 Midland Hwy, Guilford
Phone: 0408 553 545
Open for lunch Sat & Sun 12.30pm to 5pm
Long Lunch is $85 per person
www.guilfordvineyard.com.au

Guilford Wines is located roughly halfway between Castlemaine and Daylesford (on the edge of Castlemaine Diggings National Park), and is planted with shiraz, cabernet sauvignon, viognier, and chardonnay grape varieties. The winery's acclaimed restaurant is sited under a covered pergola and overlooks the rows of vines. The menu champions locally sourced produce and is designed to be matched with different estate wines.

Mt Franklin Estate (MAFIC)

2 Whybrow St, Franklindford
Phone: 0419 297 460
Open Sat (other times please call) 11am to 5pm
www.mtfranklinestate.com.au

Mt Franklin Estate blends into the ancient lava flow landscape around Mount Franklin (Lalgambuk), just a few minutes' drive north of Daylesford. Hand-reared vines of dolcetto, pinot grigio and nebbiolo continue a tradition of producing fresh, accessible Italian-style wines – a nod to the Swiss-Italian migrants who brought their craft to this part of the world in the mid-19th century. Vines thrive under clear skies at an elevation of 360 metres above sea level in this far north-western corner of the Macedon Ranges wine region.

Passing Clouds

30 Roddas Ln, Musk
Phone: (03) 5348 5550
Cellar door: Thur to Mon 10am to 5pm
Tue & Wed 10am to 2.30pm
Lunch: Thu to Mon
Bookings essential
www.passingclouds.com.au

Passing Clouds was the name co-founders Graeme Leith and Sue Mackinnon gave to their small family-owned winery in 1974, when they first planted shiraz and cabernet sauvignon grapes. Now under the watch of Cameron Leith, pinot noir and chardonnay also contribute to a formidable stable of wines. Passing Clouds is the closest major cellar door to Daylesford and makes a great half-day trip from town.

Wineries

Sailors Falls Estate

1073 Telegraph Rd, Sailors Falls
Phone: 0431 689 692
Open Sat & Sun 11am to 5pm
Call head to confirm availability www.sailorsfallsestate.com.au

Sailors Falls Estate is set on a rural property surrounded by bushland, and offers a tranquil setting in which to taste this boutique vineyard's hand nurtured, cool climate pinot gris, pinot noir, gamay, rosé, chardonnay and gewürztraminer vintages. These high-quality wines feature high natural acidity and intense yet elegant structures. Sailors Falls utilises dry farming methods and practices responsible growing techniques.

Wombat Forest Wines

189 Springhill Rd, Denver
Phone: 0408 799 187
Open Fri to Sun 12pm to 5pm
www.wombatforestwines.com

Wombat Forest Wines produces hand-crafted reds aged in French Oak barrels, alongside elegant cool climate whites. Set in the heart of their namesake forest, the winery's cellar door and courtyard are the perfect spots to relax and enjoy a glass of wine accompanied by a seasonal tasting platter. The 'Burrow Event Space' is a modern take on a traditional barn and opens onto an expansive verandah with dramatic forest views. It's the ideal location for celebrating a special occasion.

Cidery

Daylesford Cider Co

155 Dairy Flat Rd, Musk
Phone: (03) 5348 2275
Open 7 days a week 10am to 5pm
www.daylesfordcider.com.au

Under the careful stewardship of Clare and Jon Mackie, Daylesford Cider Co has blossomed into a must-visit for cider aficionados, and has been awarded numerous accolades at shows such as the Australian Cider Awards. Clare and Jon's dedication to their craft is evident in every glass!
